

Ancient Science of India 6: Eco-Friendly, Scientific Heritage of Five Great Sacrifices (PanchaMahaa-Yajnya): Studies from Manusmurti, Bhagavad Gita, Tantra Philosophy, Yoga and Bible – A Brief Review

Sachidananda Padhy

Vedic Science Research Centre, Bhaba Nagar-1, Brahmapur 760 004, Odisha, India
E-mail: sachi_padhy@rediffmail.com

KEYWORDS Bhagavad Gita. Bible. Manusmurti. Sacrifice. Tantra. Yoga

ABSTRACT Manusmurti the first ethical law book of human society reveals the Highest Ecological Philosophy of the Humanity – “Let him never, if he is able to perform them, neglect the sacrifices: For the source of knowledge (RrushiYajnya); for his parents and ancestors (PitruYajnya); for the ecological factors, source of unclaimed gifts (DebaYajnya); for the Biodiversity around him (BhootaYajnya) and for the fellow human beings of his society (NrruYajnya).