

Influence of Infrastructural Facilities in Anganwadis on Promoting the Allround Development of Preschool Children

K.N.Anuradha and M. Komala

KEY WORDS Anganwadis. Preschool Children. Allround Development. Infrastructural Facilities.

ABSTRACT The present study was carried out to evaluate the availability of infrastructural facilities in anaganwadis and its influence on promoting allround development of preschool children. This study reveals that 60% of the selected anganwadis have poor infrastructural facilities to conduct the various activities for preschool children. It also reveals that infrastructural facilities in anganwadis have influenced on promoting allround developments of preschool children. The highly significant difference were observed between the preschool children who were in anganwadis with better infrastructural facilities and preschool children who were in anganwadis with poor Infrastructural facilities in their allround developments and $P < 0.001$ level of significance were observed in all the areas of developments i.e., Physical, Emotional, Language, Personal-Social and Intellectual Development of the preschool children.

Authors' Address: K.N. Anuradha and M. Komala, Department of Studies in Food Science and Nutrition (Human Development), University of Mysore, Mysore 570 006 Karnataka, India